

Reflection Rubric

Mr. Langley

A	Has support from the work(s) giving several specific examples to show or prove your point. Fully answers the prompt in detail. Content is in the proper font style and size (times new roman size 12 font – double spaced). Appropriate MLA parenthetical citations are used. A title page precedes the reflection and a works cited page using proper MLA format follows the reflection. Reflection is at least 1 ½ pages in length. A+ work exceeds expectations. Work is saved with student’s last name and title of reflection as the file name and is emailed as an attachment by the due date.	45-50
B	Has support from the work(s) giving many specific examples to show or prove your point. Answers the prompt in detail. Focus may stray once. Content is in the proper font style and size (times new roman size 12 font – double spaced). Appropriate MLA parenthetical citations are used. A title page precedes the reflection and a works cited page using proper MLA format follows the reflection. Reflection is at least 1 ¼ pages in length. Work is saved with student’s last name and title of reflection as the file name and is emailed as an attachment by the due date.	40-44
C	Has support from the work(s) giving some specific examples to show or prove your point. Answers the prompt in detail. Focus strays from the prompt. Content is in the proper font style and size (times new roman size 12 font – double spaced). Appropriate MLA parenthetical citations are used. A title page precedes the reflection and a works cited page using proper MLA format follows the reflection. Reflection is at least 1 page in length. Work is saved with student’s last name and title of reflection as the file name and is emailed as an attachment by the due date.	35-39
D	Support from the work(s) giving specific examples to show or prove your point is weak. Strays from the prompt. Content is in the proper font style and size (times new roman size 12 font – double spaced). Appropriate MLA parenthetical citations are used. A title page precedes the reflection and a works cited page using proper MLA format follows the reflection. Reflection is at least ¾ page in length. Work is saved with student’s last name and title of reflection as the file name and is emailed as an attachment by the due date.	30-34
F	Little to no support from the work(s) giving specific examples to show or prove your point is used. The prompt is ignored. Content is in the proper font style and size (times new roman size 12 font – double spaced). Appropriate MLA parenthetical citations are used. A title page precedes the reflection and a works cited page using proper MLA format follows the reflection. Reflection is at less than ¾ page in length. Work is saved with student’s last name and title of reflection as the file name and is emailed as an attachment by the due date.	0-29